DESCRIPTION OF SPONSORSHIP MODALITIES

Scientific program. The logo of the sponsoring companies will be included in the scientific program, which will be disseminated on the official website and distributed to the attendees.

Acknowledgment poster. The sponsors' logos will be included at the entrance to the room where the sessions will take place, ensuring visibility of the sponsoring companies during the event.

Website-logo. The official website of the Symposium will have a section dedicated exclusively to the sponsors of the event in which the logos of all the sponsoring companies will be included

Sponsor Information Website. Sponsoring companies, in addition to their logo in the sponsors section of the official website of the Symposium, may include information related to the company in pdf or video format.

Conference material. All attendees will receive conference bags containing session documentation. Sponsors will have the opportunity to include documentation in the bag (inclusion of a brochure or catalog (maximum size A4 and maximum weight 150 grs))

Doctors registrations. Sponsors will have free registrations for the invitation of doctors that include access to the sessions, the congress material and the certificates of attendance and accreditation of continuing education. The number of registrations will vary depending on the contribution to the congress.

Staff registration. Sponsors will receive complimentary registrations for their staff, which include access to the sessions, congress materials, and attendance and continuing education certificates. The number of registrations will vary based on the contribution to the congress.

Accommodation Blocking Priority. Sponsors will have priority in blocking the number of rooms needed for their guests in the official congress hotels (exclusively for congress registrants), subject to availability and hotel capacity. To exercise this right, it is essential to make the booking through the Congress Technical Secretariat according to their instructions.

Accommodation. Sponsors will receive one night's accommodation for each assigned medical registration.
